Stopped, Has It?

It was such a good watch. I never had it cleaned in five years. That is the remark we hear every day. Is it any wonder watches go to pieces? A DISORDERLY "CLUB."

Its Headquarters Were On Pinnacle Street.

For the past few months, residents on Pinnacle st., just west of Bridge st., have been complaining of disorderly conduct on the part of a "club" of thirteen or fourteen young men, who had quarters in rooms in the Henderson block. Those young men were in the habit of going to their rooms on Saturday night, having first provided themselves with several kegs of beer, and there in company with their companions, male and female, would spend Sunday in drinking and rioting.

Of late the misconduct of these young men has been so scandalously flagrant that complaints have been made to the police by parties living in the vicinity. Sergeant Downes intervened in the matter, gave the sports a gentle nudge, and the result was that the young men have removed their headquarters to another part of the city and this police, however, have a very good idea where those new quarters are and if the young men continue their scandalous conduct, the premises will be raided and the members of the "club" taken into custody.

Don't Miss This Pleasant Trip.
Why should any one go far from home for a summer's outing when a most pleasant holiday can be taken for a small amount of money by taking the American Line to Montreal through the 100 Islands? The boat leaves Kingston daily either for the 100 Islands or the combined trip. The new river boat, the "New York" is without doubt the finest ever put on this route, everything being up-to-date, and the cuisine excellent.

DOUGHERTY IN TOWN.

The Detective Keeps His Own Counsel-Not Ready for the Investigation.

Sunday, as well as week days, had the detective in Belleville. During yesterday afternoon George Dougherty arrived at the police headquarters and waited at the station until Chief Newton arrived. They were closeted together for some time. What the detective wanted in the city at the eleventh hour in the Napanea case was not made known to the reporter. When any pointed question was put to him he invariably gave an evasive answer, but on one point he gave the opinion that if Pare and Halden had not shown their good will by using the assigned bills, these crooks would never have been placed behind the bars. When he was asked who he thought forged Mr. Baines' name on the bills, he laughingly said that would be told at the investigation. He said and nothing of moment would be done in the investigation to-day. Detective Dougherty left last night on the steamer Algonquin for the west. Mr. W. B. Northrup, one of the counsel for Ponton, went as far as far as Brighton on the same steamer.

Explain, Mr. Herald.

On Saturday evening the local agents of the Montreal Herald received a telegram to the effect that a very important item in regard to the Ponton case, one which would carry a great deal of weight in the young man's favor, was to appear in that evening's issue. A large number of local subscribers of the Herald got wind of the message and were on hand yesterday morning to get their papers. To their intense disgust, however, when they opened their papers they found not a word in regard to the case. The presumption is that the editors had stopped the publication of the article, whatever it was.

A STORY ABOUT PARE

Said to Have Been in Dorchester Penitentiary for Robbery.

One of the Pinkerton detectives was in Bathurst, N. B., a few days ago in connection with the bills stolen from the Dominion Bank in Napanea, Ont., a year ago. It is also reported that one of the burglars arrested at Manchester, N. H., for the Napanea bank robbery, Edward Pare, alias George E. Belcourt, is now in Dorchester, N. S., in the man arrested six years ago for the burglary at the office of Jas. Fish, Newcastle, and who was caught on a C.I.B. train at River Louis, and sent back to Dorchester under the name of Bell.

Pare and Bell are said to be the same person. Bell escaped from the penitentiary in a short time. The penitentiary authorities at Dorchester will most likely send one of the keepers to Napanea, to have a look at the celebrated criminal, who admits that he was the leader of the gang that broke into the Napanea bank.

A BRAVE STRONG HEART.

Talks That are True.

Mrs. S. F. Bull, St. Lawrence st., Madoc, Ont., is enthusiastic in her praise of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. She writes as follows:

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are a splendid pill. When I began taking them I was in a terrible nervous condition and frequently very weak. My heart was very weak, beating unusually and spasmodically, causing me great suffering and sleepless nights. I felt so ill and weak all the time that I could hardly do light house work. After taking three boxes of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills I feel like a different woman. My nerves are strong. Physical weakness has been replaced by strength. My heart is strong and healthy so that it is able to fulfil its functions and beat naturally, in consequence I sleep and rest well. It had not experienced this great change from extreme physical and nervous weakness to perfect strength of body and nerves I would not have believed such a quick and radical cure possible. I cannot say too much in favor of this great medicine - they do everything that I need to do, and more. In my opinion they have no equal as a cure for nerve and heart trouble, weakness and general debility. (Signed) Mrs. S. F. Bull, St. Lawrence st., Madoc, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2.00. All druggists, or sent on receipt of price by THE DR. WARD CO., 71 Victoria street, Toronto. Book of information free. 1-27-98

PAINLESS DEATH SATURDAY.

Interesting Career of the Iron Chan-celler's Sketch—How He Pulled the German States Together and Made the Fatherland the Man of "Iron and Blood." His Last Years of Ease—

Profound Sleep in Germany.

Berlin, July 30.—Prince Bismarck died

at Friedrichshagen shortly before 10 p.m.

Death had not been expected during the day, but the aged Chancellor took a turn for the worse during the afternoon and his son, Count William Bismarck, was hurriedly summoned and reached the bedside before the end came.

DEATH WAS PAINLESS.

The Prince's Last Words Were "Thanks,

My Child." Addressed to His Daughter.

London, Aug. 1.—A special despatch to the Associated Press says the news of Prince Bismarck's death reached Berlin

at a late hour and was only generally known Sunday morning. A number of papers, including the Post, the Vorwarts and the Deutsche Zeitung, did not contain the news of the Prince's death.

The Kreuz Zeitung had only a brief

notice.

The Public Account.

The Nachrichten gave the full details of the last days and death of Bismarck.

It says: "On Thursday evening an improvement set in the Prince's condition, in which repeated changes for the worse had occurred since Christmas last, and he was able to appear at the table and take part in the family circle.

PRINCE BISMARCK.

In the conversation, drinking champagne and afterwards smoking several pipes,

which he had done lately.

His condition was so satisfactory that

Dr. Schweigger, after the Prince had gone to bed, left with the intention of returning Saturday. His condition was comparatively satisfactory throughout

Friday and Saturday morning. He read the papers and conversed on politics, particularly referring to Russian affairs.

In the forenoon he took luncheon,

grumbling jovially at the small proportion of spirits in his drinking water.

Then a sudden change for the worse occurred, in consequence of an acute attack of pulmonary oedema, and in the course of the afternoon he frequently became unconscious.

Recently, periods of unusual mental clearing, the Prince had had intervals of brightness, falling into long and dreamless sleep, on awakening from which he was to be completely refreshed.

On Saturday evening grave symptoms appeared. Death came easily and painlessly. Dr. Schweigger was able to some extent to lighten the last moments.

His Last Words.

The last words of Prince Bismarck uttered were addressed to his daughter,

Countess Von Rantzau, who wiped away

the perspiration from his forehead. They were: "Thanks, my child."

The whole family were assembled at the bedside at the last moments of the Prince. Dr. Schweigger, Dr. Chrystander and Baron

and Baroness Merck were also present.

As so breathing apparatus was perceptible for three minutes. Dr.

Schweigger declared quietly and simply that the Prince had died.

Dr. Schweigger telegraphed the news to Emperor William in Norway.

The Prince had been used to sleep, in an easy position, with his head slightly inclined to the left. The expression on his face is mild and peaceful.

In accordance with Prince Bismarck's wish his body will be buried upon the hill beside the Castle in the vicinity of Hirschgarden.

The Emperor Deeply Affected.

Bergen, Norway, Aug. 1.—When

Emperor William was informed of the Prince's death early Sunday morning he was deeply affected and ordered his yacht to return immediately. The Hohenoller, with the Emperor on board, will reach the coast of the yacht is lying at half-mast.

IRVING'S HARD LUCK

GREAT ENGLISH ACTOR IS NOT AS PROSPEROUS AS HE WAS.

Reads Tragedy on the Modern Stage—
Said to Be Succumbing to Ambition—Rivals Lillie Herolowen Tree—Succession of the Life Guard Marshal, Miss Ellen Terrell, &c. (Special Correspondence.)

The spectacular facility with which we are betheliened to endure the misfortunes of other nations as to view with curious acquiescence the clouds that are beginning to obscure the glory of the great English actor, Sir Henry Irving. We fly coming from abroad, and to the sickle head, anxious to see a "dais" over the superb career of the English stage, we pass as spectators of the tragedy—surrender and three thousand miles away from its platform.

And as it is generally the outsider who sees the end of the game, we find ourselves that we can view things rather more impartially than they are able to do. In the case of the great failure on the part of the knight-actor now regarded as responsible for his waning light. A man who has had to fight Goliath and all, for his position; who has achieved success by dint of the most magnificent penmanship; who, after a long and a backbone of genius; who has had to struggle against the atrophy of actors, start a sinking ship) looking out for Irving's successor, and it is needless to say that the search is fruitless. Irving is not skulking in the background. The man to whom the word "failure" was applied is a man who has failed it literally frequently at late. At the hours just off the Strand, where motorists rage and stand for broiling hours, he is seen, and he is seen no longer any clamoring crowd! Plays that five years ago would have succeeded would now be called "failures" and have proved to be powerless. Critics, who used to expend their substance in adjectives qualifying the infallible Irving's "triumphs," are now reduced to the tongue of the gossip, that Irving knew how to silence so completely, "wags and wags" and "wags and wags" and "wags and wags" lady whose power he realized, and whom he always utilized in all his swagging tongue bed-died, serene, as if contemplating abandoning the man at whose shrine she worshipped ("I bring you god," she used to say), and a weariness of death is over the whole precincts of heaven. The sea-saw lifts, and I bring himself said that "the drama must succeed as a business, if it is not to be as an art," and this cunningly rounded sentence now meets his eye under the changed conditions. The man who is about to fall never knows it. Irving has been a failure, but he has not been as miserably as ever. He knew his public well—their dead, clinging, loyal pulse, and he had not done the foibles of that

INSTANTLY KILLED.

Sad Death of a Veteran G. T. R. Driver.

At twenty minutes to ten o'clock last night Mr. Lewis Simpson, G.T.R. driver, was struck by a pilot in going in the street at Brockville and instantly killed. Mr. Simpson had taken down the mixed train leaving Belleville at 5:40 and arriving at Brockville at 7:30, and intended to wait and bring up his train to-morrow. The road provided quarters there in which the men sleep during their wait, but at present the rooms are undergoing repairs. Mr. Simpson, in company with his friend, Mr. A. Kennedy, and Mr. Ed. Adams, also of Belleville, returned to the reading room for a few minutes. It was suggested by one of them that they go and secure some more sleep during their wait, but at present the rooms are undergoing repairs. Mr. Simpson, in company with his friend, Mr. A. Kennedy, and Mr. Ed. Adams, also of Belleville, returned to the reading room for a few minutes. It was suggested by one of them that they go and secure some more sleep during their wait, but at present the rooms are undergoing repairs. Mr. Simpson, in company with his friend, Mr. A. Kennedy, and Mr. Ed. Adams, also of Belleville, returned to the reading room for a few minutes. It was suggested by one of them that they go and secure some more sleep during their wait, but at present the rooms are undergoing repairs.

The news was telegraphed here at once and the Rev. J. J. Rice conveyed the sad tidings to his wife, Mrs. H. Adams, who is broken. The remains will arrive here this afternoon and the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon under Masonic auspices.

Mr. Adams, who is not in very good health, was so overcome by the sad news that he is now under a physician's care at Brockville.

Mr. Simpson was one of the best known and best liked engineers on the Grand Trunk. He was born in Pennsylvania 44 years ago, but spent the most of his life in this city. He was on the road from childhood, and by faithful and intelligent service had won the respect and confidence of the officers of the road. Among his brother engineers Mr. Simpson was deservedly popular, being of a genial and kindly disposition, and his sad death has cast a gloom over the whole fraternity.

Mr. Simpson was a member of Belleville Lodge L.O.O.F., and of Moira Lodge A.F. and M. He carried $4000 insurance. Mr. Simpson was an adherent of the Methodist Church. A wife and three children survive him. His oldest son, Frank, left the town three years ago for Chicago, where he intended to visit friends, but he was wired this morning to return.

THE PARK CASE.

Pare's Cross-Examination by Porter.

CONVICT'S STORY OF HIS CAREER.

Incidents of his Prison Life—His Attempt to Humbug Cullen—A Man of Many Crimes—Still in the Box.

(Special to the INTELLIGENCER.)

Napies, 11.15 a. m. Aug. 3.—The morning session opened with a great crowd in the court and hundreds around the doors. Mr. Porter began the cross-examination of Pare and Pare gave his alias Howard, Bellinger and "Old George." He was born in St. Thomas, Que., 56 years ago and had a common school education and learned his printer's art. He was a hotel keeper in Montreal, and after living in Detroit two years he returned to Montreal and fell into loose habits. For robbing, a till he got three months in jail. Then he drifted down to Quebec, where he got seven years in St. Vincent de Paul for robbing a safe.

Mr. Porter then took up the life of the man while at St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary.

The first episode was when Pare caused an investigation, when he charged Deputy Warden Oulmet with accepting $300 as a bribe to assist two convicts to escape. An investigation was held, but Oulmet was declared innocent, as the man who had given an affidavit corroborating Pare's evidence could never be found, and after Pare had been in prison four years, he had an interview with Detective Cullen, of Montreal, and Pare told Cullen there was to be an attempt upon St. Lambert Bank, Montreal, and that a man in the bank was favorable.

The witness very unwillingly answered questions under cross-examination, and contradicted himself. Pare declared that the reason he told Cullen about the contemplated attempt upon the St. Lambert Bank was to get his liberty and secure a little money.

When Pare got out of prison he worked in Montreal, where he cracked a safe and got $380. He was arrested but broke jail and went to the Massie Hotel, New Hampshire. The warrant for his arrest is still out in Montreal. He went to New Hampshire, where he was arrested for raiding a store. He got 4 years in Concord penitentiary. Then he went to Manchester, then to Detroit, then to Cleveland, then to Toronto.

He came to Toronto in May, 1897. He got two letters, one from his sister and one from Jack Roach. He was surprised to get one from Roach, as it was the first he had received from him. He stayed one day in Toronto and then came down to Belleville.

THE LATEST.

2:30 p. m.—Pare was not called in immediately on the assembly of the court, but F. F. Miller, C. E., was put in the box and produced an answer to the testimony of the surrounding buildings.

Mr. Porter had the witness explain every part of the plan and give many details. The flat roof just behind Pare's room was shown to possess a gutter, down which water flowed.

The defence is going into the topography of the scene of the robbery, in order to lay the basis of a strong case against the testimony of certain Crown witnesses, notably young Haycock and Mr. McGee.

Pare again took the stand. He was asked by Mr. Porter to write a letter at his dictation, which he did, and then Pare recognized the writing and signature of a letter Mr. Porter has as his (Pare's) own. The letter was dated Montreal, Nov. 1897, and was addressed to Mr. Porter, and it read:

"A conspiracy is forming here in Montreal against your client, Porter, by some sharpers here in Montreal. Detectives Doughterty and Wilkes are implicated, and I have more I will let you know. I remain respectfully yours, (Sgd.) Old George."

THE SECRET OF GOOD LOOKS.

A Good Complexion Will Make a Person of Ordinary Features Beautiful.

"As a rule, women wash their faces too frequently," says Euphenia Woods in How to Have a Fine Complexion in The Woman's Home Companion.

"It is far from being the best way to clean the face, more especially where rain-water cannot be procured. That may be used quite frequently, but soap should be applied oftener than three times a week. Pure, imported castile soap, such as surgical use, should be given the preference. Use it at a slightly warm water; then rinse the face with clear, cold water. In the morning cold water should be used. In the evening, if you do not have rainwater, throw a pinch of powdered borax into the washbowl, but use it sparingly if your skin is more alkaline than acid. You can discover this by wiping your face with litmus paper when you are preparing. Blue litmus paper turns red when it comes in contact with the red paper turns blue when exposed to an alkali. On no account must you use soap on your face except with rainwater. Soap in hard water forms a scum which, even though quite invisible, clogs the pores, often causing pimples and blackheads and always giving the skin a faded appearance. Throw away powders, washes, cosmetics, lotions of every description. Without doubt there are some very good preparations on the market, but how are you to know that you are using the one that best suits your skin? A skin that is distinctly acid requires very different preparations from one that is alkaline.

"It is not generally known that it is the action of the sun on the natural oils of the skin that causes tan and sunburn. If a healthy woman could keep this oil wiped off it accumulates, the skin always has a pretty complexion, provided so much friction does not irritate the skin. One reason why the skin becomes so much sorer than that on the face is that the clothing supplies the friction necessary to keep the pores of the skin from clogging. Finally, if you want a nice complexion, you must take plenty of sleep in a well ventilated room, stop worrying, bathe frequently and breathe a little every day. No lotion is better than petrolatum, but it must not be allowed to dry on the skin."

A FRONTIER FIGHT.

How Jim Bowie's Hand of Right Steel Off Fire-Headed Cannibals.

In Texas James Bowie set his hand to another sort of fighting. In 1831, with his brother Hensley, six other men and a boy, he set out upon a trading and exploring expedition through the heart of the Comanche country. At six days' travel from possible succor he found his party assailed by 500 mounted warriors, Comanches all, who rode like the wind, yoked with deadly aim. Resistance seemed hopeless in the face of odds so great. Bowie took the one desperate chance left him and won the game.

He divided his force, stationing three in one skirt of woods, with the pack animals, and scattering the rest about some considerable distance. Each was fully armed—had rifle, knife and pistol. Powder and lead were plenty; also wherever that is cut and drink. Everyone had a warning in it. Close about the waters the white with them."

Five days the fight went on. Swamping in clouds, the red riders dashed round, round, ever nearing the devoted marksmen and scolding toward them in whirling flight arrows and bullets thicker than hail. But the covering ended in rent when it came within fair rifle range. The men crouching in cover made every missile tell. Men and horses went down in struggling heaps at the sharp crack of their weapons, and they were so swift to load and fire that the chiefs easily persuaded themselves their enemy was a hundred strong. But the attacking went on until three score braves were dead and as many more disabled, to say nothing of the ponies. Bowie had one man dead, whom he buried reverently; one desperately wounded, whom he took away to safety, although the attempt appeared to promise destruction to all the band.—Martha McCulloch-Williams in Harper's Magazine.

A Shirt Washing General.

I have seen a private letter from General Gattaceo to a friend in a high place, in which the general describes himself as perfectly happy in the Sudan. He had only one shirt to his back, which he washed for himself from time to time. He lived on thinned meat and occupied a straw shelter without furniture and with nothing more than a blanket, to cover him. He was in rude health and the best spirits, and all his men were the same.—Allanblond Pioncer.

Brings Forth a Story.

BOWMANVILLE, Ont. We, the undersigned, certify that the health of the Rev. R. A. Bilkey has for months been so deteriorating, and that he is now suffering from severe nervous prostration, and urgently requires immediate and prolonged rest. J. W. McLaughlin, M.D., A. H. M.D., L. Holland Reid, M.R.C.S., etc.

THIS INTERVIEW TELLS IT.

A reporter called on the Rev. R. A. Bilkey, pastor St. John's (Episcopal) Church, Bowmanville, Ontario, during a church function, and on congratulating him on the great change for the better in his appearance, the reverend gentleman said, "It is due entirely to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

"I suffered for over three years from extreme nervousness, weakness and prostration, and could not obtain relief. A few months ago it became only too apparent that extreme nervous prostration had set in, as I lost flesh and appetite rapidly. Three of our four medical men pronounced me in urgent need of immediate and prolonged rest in order to build up my nervous system, giving me a certificate to look after me. About this time, by pure accident, Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills were brought to my notice. I decided to try them, and, not doing so, a decided change for the better took place at once. I have since continued and marked benefit has followed. My appetite has returned. I am gaining in flesh, money, and my general health is now good. Further, I am sure that these results are due to the action of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and I have every confidence that they will do for others all that they have done for me."

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, and 4 for $2.00. Beware of cheap imitations.

WANT MORE WATER.
Efforts Being Made by Manufacturers to Improve the Water Power.

It is understood that Mr. H. D. Cooper and Mr. W. H. Lingham are making an effort to secure a better water power for their mills. The low water in the Moira this year has been a great drawback to them in their operations as well as to other local manufacturers. There is a lake about 50 miles north of the Niagara, which is the joint property of the Niagara Co., of Trenton, and the Rathbun Co., of Deseronto, and it is thought that if the dam there is released, there will be an abundance of water here. The Niagara Co. have consented to release the dam and efforts are being made to induce the Rathbuns to make a like concession.

Waterproof Coats.
The Oak Hall carry a very complete line of waterproof coats. They have one very special lot of imported coats, grey, brown and blue, both single and double breasted, stitched seams, and warranted not to get hard. The price is only $5, and we invite you to see if any other firm can touch it in price and quality.

Mines and Minerals.
Mr. Joseph James, of Actinolite, has been shipping large quantities of roofing material to Chicago lately.

Mr. Fred Collins of Madoc, is preparing a large case of North American minerals for exhibition at the Toronto fair this year.

A Dangerous Bridge.
On Wednesday last Mr. Kirk, Chairman of the Roads and Bridges Committee of the County Council, Mr. J. W. Pearce, County Superintendent, together with Mr. J. J. Vearo, Warden of the County of Peterborough, examined the bridge over Dear river, between Hastings and Peterborough counties. They found it to be in an unsafe condition and recommended that it be rebuilt. The work will be undertaken as soon as possible.

MISS FRENCH ON THE STAND.

Ex-Manager Baines Also Gives His Testimony.

Court Will Adjourn Till Tuesday—Magistrate Daily Will Decide To-Day Whether To Try the Case. The Possibilities in Either Event—Young Joe Haycock Corroborates His Aunt, Mrs. McGee, as to the Notes.

Napawan, Aug. 12.—The evidence adduced yesterday was very interesting, but it is as yet not considered here as conclusive. To-day will be a startling day for both defence and Crown. The Crown will ask the magistrate to commit the evidence produced, and the defence will object to a commitment. If the magistrate decides to try the case, then a thorough examination will take place on before him. In that case an adjournment must be had till the defence can gather its witnesses together. It is understood that Magistrate Daily will try the case if the evidence is strong on either side. He will give his ultimatum this afternoon.

HIGH CONSTABLE SILENCE

Gave Evidence as to Arresting Holden and Fare.

High Constable Silas was the first witness yesterday. He testified to having arrested Pare and Holden on August 21, 1897. He also testified to the discovery of the keys in the police station. The defence tried to adduce evidence to show that the detectives were anxious to connect Pare with the case, but the magistrate ruled out all questions bearing on this point. The Indian, J. G. Hall, took the stand and identified Holden and Mackie as the two men who were at his place in February, 1897. "I did not hear Holden's name," said he, "but I saw him in Belleville two or three times before. Mackie told me his name," said the witness.

Nathan Hix, a farmer on the Higgins place east of the station, testified that he had seen Mackie, Holden, Pare and Mackie at his place from June until the latter part of August. The man who came down on the train was called the "dude."

Recognized the "Dude."

"I saw the 'dude' in the corner of the prisoners' box," said the witness, pointing to the place where he might have seen him on the truck; one had a light coat on. There was a bicycle up against the back of the truck that night. This witness was not sure about Mackie, though he declared the resemblance to the dude was strong.

Mrs. Hix followed in a similar strain, but positively identified Pare, Holden and Mackie as the tramps.

Little Willie Mox made a good witness and told a story similar to his parents. John Long testified to having seen Holden and Mackie on successive mornings last summer between 6 and 7 o'clock.

Frank Vanolinski positively identified Pare, Holden and Mackie as three tramps that summer last year on Hawley's Point about one mile east of the town.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Miss French told her story in a musical and sympathetic tone.

The court opened sharply at 2 o'clock. Miss Margaret French took the witness stand. She told her story in a low, musical tone that evoked sympathy and drew the audience. To Mr. Oler she said: "My name is Margaret French. I live with my father in Toronto. I was born in a first class to prisoner Mackie. I lived eight months in the house of Mackie during the winter of 1897 and 1898. He lives at Church street, Belleville, with his wife and four children, and I worked at the mill there. He was a quiet man. I made a statement to Detective Dougherty, and not liking to go to jail, I went to Detroit, but was followed and brought back.

Witness saw some tools on the foot of the bed and a revolver was on the bureau one day, but did not recognize the jewelry and the trace and bit produced in court. Two days before she saw the tools Mackie came home with a cat on the side of his face. He said he had fallen out of the rig and cut his face on the ice. She had no date, but it must have been in the last of January or first of February. Continuing:

Mackie asked me to write a letter for him. He asked me to address the letter to Mr. Dundas, Dominion Bank. I am sure it was written by Mackie. This letter stated that there was a girl and her friend going to call on Mr. Dundas and Mr. Oler called, but I could not go in because there was some company. He cautioned Dundas not to have any more of the money, but I was told by the stairs, but might get in by the back way. I wrote some letters, and gave them to Mackie. He did not tell me what he wanted to do.

Witness then identified Jack Roach's photo that she saw Mrs. Mackie call on Mackie, and once she said during the trial to Mackie that "it was too bad that he was in the prison." He said nothing. Mackie slept till pretty late in the morning. Sometimes Mackie would get up at the day time and the police officers would be there when he would get up. She never heard the name mentioned by Mackie prior to the photo shown me in the room, it was my father's brother. He is now in Dawson City. He went seven weeks before he was brought back. Mackie lived at 35 Mutual street. He was there when Mackie was with them. They were often together.

To Lawyer Wilson she said: "A hammer, something to sharpen the knives and a revolver were the things I saw. I always noticed a revolver in the bureau."

At this stage Prisoner Mackie called his lawyer over and held an animated conversation.

Then witness went on: "There was a trunk in the room. The upper part of the trunk may have been on the bed, and the tools in the bureau. Mackie and I went to bed between 10 and 11 o'clock. Robert was sick once while I was at his house."

Chief Adams on the stand. He testified that he came to Napawan on Oct. 8, 1897, and that he is Chief of Police. He detailed the search for the keys in Belleville last year.

fore yesterday, and what he found. He found a skeleton, an old rusty, dented tin box and the tin lid of a box in and near a hole near the railway track near the hall near the post of the village on July 12-14, 1897. On Sunday morning, 17th July, in company with Detectives Wilket, Dougherty, Thornhill, Inspector Healy and Mrs. Healy he went into the Havewell shed and dug up certain burglars' tools which he produced.

To Mr. Porter he said the box was found away from the hole and would not go into it until the hole dirt was scraped out.

To Mr. Wilson he said Detective Dougherty was present when the skeleton was found.

Sidney Scott identified Holden, Pare and Mackie, and Jack Roach's picture, as men who were leading around half a mile from Hawley's Point during the railway work in July 1897.

Walter Corral, a grocer, testified to finding an empty tin bleach box labelled Toronto Bleach Company a year ago, but could not identify the one in court with the label.

Joseph Haycock, Jr., said he slept in Napawan in Mrs. Green's room in a new house built on the night of Aug. 27, 1897. Pare's room was right below where he slept. He was awakened by something heavy falling on the floor. After that he heard the moving of light feet and murmur of voices. These sounds were directly below him. They vanished toward the stairs. One night he met a man right in front of the entrance to Pare's room. He had a black mustache.

To Mr. Northup witness said he met the man about three weeks prior to the robbery. Could not say he was one of the prisoners.

A. W. Grange said on July 1, 1897, Mr. Porter rented them the room. Mr. Douglas rented the rooms and paid the rent.

Manager Hill of the Dominion Bank testified that the books of the bank showed that there was, on Aug. 27, 1897, $2,120 in the bank, besides $10,000 in unassigned notes. The key found by Silas fitted the combination lock perfectly.

Ex-Manager Baines identified the key of his compartment, and said: "On Aug. 27 there was $13,410.40 in the bank." On Aug. 28 he was playing on the slot machine. He asked Mr. Porter to close the safe for him that night. The match was given to him. He was accustomed to lock the safe himself.

"Had you any assets in Government bonds?" asked Mr. Oler.

"Yes. The ten days' balance sheet shows this. This sheet of Aug. 10, third item, says 'Government securities, $10,000.00.' That is in Mr. Porter's handwriting. This was Mr. Porter's work. Mr. Dundas might also see the entry as well as the balance sheet. He was not sure of the combination of the safe, but he had no business in the safe."

"As a matter of fact had you any Government bonds in the bank?"

"No. We never had those Government bonds here. They were in Toronto. They were a ten days' note. $2,400 was received every six months."

"You ever put any of the new $10 bills in the safe?"

"Yes. That was done on Aug. 27, the banking day of the theft, but before the robbery. He did not see any more of the money the morning after the robbery, but afterwards found a hole on the side of the safe."

The combination lock was intact externally and internally. The iron plate between the two compartments had been raised up, an instrument put in and his compartment tried off. The skeleton was produced. "We had a place for some mortgages in our safe. After the burglary it was gone," said the witness.

He identified some of the coins found on the premises as not any of the money he recognized also the bills as a portion of the stolen unassigned bills. Letter A6601 to 17020 was the number of the bills stolen. Said the witness.

He then explained Porter's finances and said that he was not sure of the combination of the safe, but he had no business in the safe."

Stopped, Has It?

It was such a good watch, I never had it cleaned in five years. That is the remark we hear every day. Is it any wonder watches go to pieces?
It is. A very delicate piece of mechanism, and to give satisfaction and wear a lifetime should be cleaned every six months. Has your watch been cleaned? If not, bring it in. Our prices are as low as is consistent with good work.

THAT NAPANEE ROBBERY.

(Society, in Events.)

The trial of the suspects in the Napanee Bank robbery is absorbing a large share of the public attention these days. The story told by the prisoner Pare is a remarkable one, and is so finished in every detail that it is almost too good to be true.
The man's reputation is such that the tale will require some backing up, that the detectives might as well have made out a case independent of anything he had to say. So far there is nothing to shake faith in the innocence of Ponton, who does not seem to have been connected with the robbery in any way, unless Pare's confession is to be taken as proof that he did it. The crown claims to have evidence to back Pare up in this, and the other statement, too, so far as I have heard, it does not seem to have any connection with the robbery. Pare's statement, true, it is said that there are witnesses who saw him on the stairs from Ponton's quarters, but will be necessary to the crown to go further and prove that Ponton was there at the time. A man as expert as Pare in getting in and out of banks and bank vaults, would have no trouble in getting in and out of a man's room during the absence of the man. The stolen money has been found on Ponton, nor has it been claimed that he was in debt or in such pressing need of funds that he would hire crooks to rob the bank that he might have robbed on his own account, and with a much better shot of getting off with the money. However, the trial will be watched with much interest. No one would believe a man with Pare's character without the strongest kind of corroborative evidence. He is so sure of everything that one is inclined to believe that he learned the story he told the court as a school boy learns his lesson. It is so bad that the crown has to build so largely on his evidence, which is certainly not of a disinterested character. Future developments will be watched with interest, and the wish of all right thinking people will be that justice will be vindicated, let the guilty ones whom they are.

Whether or not young Ponton be guilty of aiding in the robbery of the Napanee bank in which he was employed is of little moment beside the fact that he has become the popular hero of the town, and all the girls in it are going wild about him. They do not seek to know whether he had a hand in the affair, and do not seem to care if he had. It has become the rage to rave over him, and the honest young men of the town, the ins and outs of whose private quarters have not been made known to the public as described by a noted crook, are completely ignored by these gushing belles. I am not one who would blame them for sympathizing with the young man if he is wrongly accused, but cutting his photographs out of the newspapers to ornament their hats, and gushing over him in the way they are said to be doing is going beyond all bounds. While women persist in carrying their sentiments to such extremes, they cannot hope to win respect for any views they may entertain on such questions, for instance, as prohibition. Most people will be inclined to think that that too is a mere matter of such, and there is no fixed principle to be found in it.

Meanwhile, however, Ponton is to be envied, for I am told that Napanee has some very pretty girls, and the fellow would be a bank or ten banks, if by so doing he could win their favor and back in their smiles. Society indeed has reached a bad state when a man has to go to the lengths of such a thing to win the favor of some of our girls. It is to be hoped that the thing goes on as it is, for if it does not, it is likely to make robbers of us all out of sheer desperation. The low who has the proper spirit of gallantry is going to be left out in the cold for the small matter of cracking a safe or walking off with a cash box.

A Correction.

Mr. Porter wishes it stated that he in no way was criticized by the Intelligencer's report on the Napanee bank case.

SEARCH FOR ROACH.

He is Being Sought All Over the Continent—Attacking Pare's Story.

Napanee, Aug. 12.—Mr. Dougherty goes to New York, and when he returns he may bring John Roach with him.

The members of every detective staff in North America are looking for the ex-Montrealer, but any statement that he whereabouts are known is untrue.

Don't Miss This Pleasant Trip.

Why should anyone go far from home for a summer's outing when a most pleasant holiday can be taken for a small amount of money by taking the American Line to Montreal through the 1000 Island down the St. Lawrence and shooting the rapids? The boat leaves Kingston Monday, Aug. 16, at 10 a.m. for the island combined trip. The new river boat, the "New York," is without doubt the finest ever run on the route, and being being up-to-date, and the cuisine excellent.

"American Line" steamer leaves Kingston daily at 4:30 a.m., and passengers are entitled to berth free the night before the departure of steamer. There is no smoke, no freight, dining rooms on main deck, and the boats are well equipped with day line steamers. For full particulars

senger agent, Kingston, Ont. d.x.10

Does He Fear Justice?

Why does Hon. A. S. Hardy call the Legislature to decide a question which the judiciary, every member of which, is competent to decide? Mr. Hardy's tendency is to go to the legislature, and he is warranted to do justice to every body.

The Attorney-General has gone out of his way to boast that everyone is sure of justice from the Ontario bench, and he wishes to put the question which the Ontario bench will leave to justice, and not to the legislature.

RELIEF OF DERRY.

Grand Celebration by the 'Prentice Boys at Deseronto.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Deseronto, Aug. 12.—The 'Prentice Boys' celebration, which took place in Deseronto to-day, was largely attended.
There were probably 4,000 or 5,000 visitors in town. Excursions came in by boat and rail from Ganouaque, Kingston, Picton, Watertown, Tweed, Brighton, Trenton and Belleville. Also, large numbers drove in from the surrounding country. The temperature was comfortable and just enough rain fell to lay the dust.

About 2 o'clock p.m. the procession formed and marched to the driving park.
It consisted of 'Prentice Boys, Lady True Blues in carriages, True Blues, Sons of Trenton, Excursions, and other clubs in carriages. The lodges were from Ganouaque, Kingston, Solby, Tyendinaga, Picton, Belleville, Trenton and Deseronto.
Six bands of music were in the procession,
and the streets were lined with spectators.
At the park there were speeches, bicycle races, bicycle games, etc. Everything passed off quietly and all appeared to enjoy the day.

Special Bargains in Shirts.

This (Saturday) evening the Oak Hall

other, a full colored shirt with soft bosom, cuffs and tips to the sleeves, and all at $1.25

Brigade Camp Echoes.

Old Durham is still abuzz at the Military camp held here by the 46th Battalion, the 46th Battalion, of Durham, commanded by Col. Hughes, had the proud distinction of taking the highest number of marks of excellence obtained by any of the battalions at the annual drill; the Military Inspector pronounced the 46th the best rural Battalion in Canada in every respect.

Sergeant Frank Markey, a member of No.
1, 40th Northumberland Battalion of Infantry, who has had a bad attack of dysentery, has been sent home, and is home from the Belleville military camp, we are informed, not improving very rapidly.—Cobourg Sentinel Star.

Died at Cambray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foster started on the 10th for Cambray to visit her father, who was dangerously ill. They were told in getting home to see him alive.
Amos B. Coates was 72 years of age. He was a native of Victoria, England, and came to this country in his youth. For a great number of years he had been engaged in farming and fruit growing. He was a faithful member of the English Church.
In politics he was a staunch Conservative.
He leaves a wife, three daughters and one son.

From the Palmy Bermudas.

Mr. Darrell, a leading merchant of Hamilton, Bermuda, who is making a tour of this country, is in the city. He brought his daughter, Miss Minnie, to this city to reside for a while.

Mr. Darrell is accompanied by Mr.
Robertson, also of Hamilton, whose son was a student at the U. O. C. last winter.
Both are gentlemen of English lineage and reimburse and they declare themselves to be delighted with the climate and scenery of this country.

Counterfeit Coin.

A large number of spurious "quarters" are in circulation. They look and feel all right, but when sounded the cheat is at once apparent. They were probably manufactured by the gang of counterfeiters who were recently captured at Montreal.
Look out for them.

Read This.

Newspaper men are blamed for a lot of things they cannot help, such as using partiality in mentioning visitors, giving names to citizens, and leaving out others. They simply print the news as they can find. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of your acquaintances, and even if he should he should not mention them on the train. Tell him about it. It's news that makes the news, and every man, woman and child in the neighborhood should be an associate editor if they would.

MADRID'S REIGN OF TERROR

Some Scraps of Truth Which Escaped the Press Censor.

Why Spanish Telegrams Have Been Censored. The impending revolution is inevitable. Why Our Correspondents Consider a Carlist Uprising Near to Come—While His Father General August at Hong Kong.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—A record special from Madrid says: A perfect reign of terror prevails here. The officers of several Republican armies have been thrown into prison and others have sought safety in flight. The press censors examine whole newspapers before publication. Some of the journals appear nearly column blank and some have suspended publication altogether. The foreign correspondents dare not tell the truth, as they would be expelled if they did. Hence their telegrams are colorless, and even then all are not passed.

I am mentioning to some scraps of truth by means of a subterfuge, which, of course, I cannot now reveal. Revolution is inevitable. The impending revolution is slow in coming, but when it does come all the authorities now occupying the scene will fall without resistance. They are utterly incapable of defending their position. One thing that makes me think the Carlist cause to make an early move is the private confession of Don Carlos, the Marquis of Cerralvo, one of his leaders, both affirm that the patriotism of the present regime is the moment to disapprove of an uprising in his favor.

Reputation for Deception. As Don Carlos has a reputation for falsehood, and as one of his notorious habits has always been to keep the public in the dark and to mislead the public by his promises by announcing an approaching crisis when it is out of the question, the more intelligent people infer from his present public declarations that he is preparing to do something serious. In fact there are constant rumors here of Carlist agitation in the provinces.

BLANCO HAS RESIGNED.

He Did Not Wish to Superintend the Execution of Cere.

Madrid, Aug. 16.—The Government has received from Captain-General Blanco a dispatch tendering his resignation. The reason given by General Blanco for resigning is that he does not wish to superintend the execution of Cere. The next Cabinet Council will consider the question of appointing the Cortes. General Sagasta, the Premier, is hopeful that the Ministers will be agreed upon this point.

Some Scraps of Truth Which Escaped the Press Censor.

Why Spanish Telegrams Have Been Censored. The impending revolution is inevitable. Why Our Correspondents Consider a Carlist Uprising Near to Come—While His Father General August at Hong Kong.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—A record special from Madrid says: A perfect reign of terror prevails here. The officers of several Republican armies have been thrown into prison and others have sought safety in flight. The press censors examine whole newspapers before publication. Some of the journals appear nearly column blank and some have suspended publication altogether. The foreign correspondents dare not tell the truth, as they would be expelled if they did. Hence their telegrams are colorless, and even then all are not passed.

I am mentioning to some scraps of truth by means of a subterfuge, which, of course, I cannot now reveal. Revolution is inevitable. The impending revolution is slow in coming, but when it does come all the authorities now occupying the scene will fall without resistance. They are utterly incapable of defending their position. One thing that makes me think the Carlist cause to make an early move is the private confession of Don Carlos, the Marquis of Cerralvo, one of his leaders, both affirm that the patriotism of the present regime is the moment to disapprove of an uprising in his favor.

Reputation for Deception. As Don Carlos has a reputation for falsehood, and as one of his notorious habits has always been to keep the public in the dark and to mislead the public by his promises by announcing an approaching crisis when it is out of the question, the more intelligent people infer from his present public declarations that he is preparing to do something serious. In fact there are constant rumors here of Carlist agitation in the provinces.

BLANCO HAS RESIGNED.

He Did Not Wish to Superintend the Execution of Cere.

Madrid, Aug. 16.—The Government has received from Captain-General Blanco a dispatch tendering his resignation. The reason given by General Blanco for resigning is that he does not wish to superintend the execution of Cere. The Government is also informed that General August, Governor-General of the Philippines, will leave Manila for Spain by the first mail steamer, giving his command to the second rank.

The next Cabinet Council will consider the question of appointing the Cortes. General Sagasta, the Premier, is hopeful that the Ministers will be agreed upon this point.

MARTIN CHANGED HIS MIND

The Northwest's Fighting Member Down Off His High Horse.

He will now by his own Action Plan second rights to Seattle. He will be the Attorney-General, and Mr. Cotton will be the Finance Minister. A Point Upon Which the Old Government and Opposition Fully Agree.

Vanouver, Aug. 16.—Jas Martin changed his mind yesterday, and consented to become Attorney-General under Mr. Nesbitt, who is struggling to form a Cabinet. This means that the Opposition at present shows no broken ranks. Mr. Nesbitt is to be Premier, Mr. Martin Attorney-General, Mr. Cotton Minister of Finance. Mr. Nesbitt will also take the Agriculture Department, and Messrs. Foster and Green of Vancouver are spoken of at this writing as the other two who will accept positions in the complete Cabinet. This leaves Vancouver Island, which has controlled the province since Confederation, completely out.

Now the Tally Hoards. There are now eighteen Government, eighteen Opposition and two Independent members, according to official figures. Should the Nesbitt-Martin combination secure a Cabinet, the appointment of a speaker would leave the parties in such a position that business would be hopelessly blocked. Mr. Nesbitt will meet Parliament, but cannot hope to secure a majority vote to pass the much-desired constitutional measure before going to the country. When the House meets business will be blocked, and there will have to be fresh elections on the old lines. The Opposition and Government alike agree that Mr. Turner should have been asked to form a Government and meet Parliament, but the Lieutenant-Governor took a different view.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

John Hall With, it is said, demand that Li Hung Chang be Dismissed From Office.

London, Aug. 16.—The Foreign Office, it was reported here yesterday, though the report as yet lacks confirmation, intends to demand that the Chinese Government dismiss Prince Li Hung Chang from power on the ground that he is responsible for the recent anti-British attitude of the T'ung Li Yamen.

The Foreign Office, it is also asserted, has had under special consideration the question of sending the Taku forts on the coast of Peking, as the mouth of the Peking River, and the city of Tien-Tsin, the port of Peking, in the event of China refusing to comply with its demand, holding all until compliance is assured.

Half-Hearted Depreciation. London, Aug. 16.—The semi-official Journal of St. Petersburg, in yesterday's issue, depreciates the tone of the British press and says: "Russia does not contemplate fresh acquisition in the far East. Her only object is to preserve the advantage recently gained. The Russian Government does not desire to injure the economic interests of Great Britain, any more than those of any other power."

London, Aug. 16.—Owing to the striking growth of American competition in the tinplate trade, the Welsh manufacturers are being put to serious shifts in order to maintain their position as the controllers of the tin plate industry. They are now endeavoring to force their workmen to make lower wages, and are in consequence of this, being forced to their workmen to make lower wages.

It's Very Hot in London.

London, Aug. 16.—Yesterday was the hottest day London has known for a long time. The St. John's ambulance staff was out in full force, and treated scores of cases of heat prostration. Upward of 100 cases had been treated at the various hospitals before 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A number of patients were over the top of the ambulance, and were being taken to the hospitals, and were being taken to the hospitals, and were being taken to the hospitals.

DEFENDS CONSTABLE BILL.

The Attorney-General Denies That He Retreated.

Premier Hardy Introduced in the Legislature "An Act Respecting the Election Laws," and it is Read a First Time "On a Division" The Provisions of the Measure He Promised to Present to the House by "Man of Straw."

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Mr. Hardy introduced his constables' bill, or rather, technically, "An Act Respecting the Election Laws," yesterday afternoon.

Contents of the Bill. After the preamble, "Whereas a question has been raised since the last general election as to the legal rights of any elector to vote who have been appointed or required by returning officers or deputy returning officers to act as constables or special constables at elections," etc., the bill proceeds.

Section 1 provides for the earliest possible submission to the House of the bill of questions as to whether any part of the Election Act disqualifies electors as constables, persons furnishing election supplies, or persons retaining polling booths for voting.

Section 2 provides for the postponement of election trials pending the decision of the Court of Appeal. Section 3 provides for the proceeding with trial after 15 days from the adjournment of the Legislative Assembly.

Section 4, "No removal double," declares the rights of constables, etc., to vote, and declares that no person shall be liable to any penalty for voting at an election.

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are technical in their scope.

The Kernal Clause. Section 13: If a member is unelected as a result of the trial of any of the above-mentioned bills by reason of the disqualification of the vote of any person included in any of the classes of persons whose right to vote is the subject of any of the questions set out in Schedule "A," or partly by reason thereof and partly for some other reason, the seat shall not be given to any candidate, but the election shall be declared void, and thereafter a new election shall be held as in other cases, anything in the election as to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing in this section shall prevent an appeal from the trial judgment to the Court of Appeal.

Section 14 provides that any election petition pending at the time of the passing of the Act shall be tried by two judges on the raise, sitting together, the scrutiny to be held before them.

The remaining sections, Nos. 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19, are word-explanatory or technical.

Mr. Hardy's Defense. In introducing the bill, Mr. Hardy spoke on a hour and a quarter, and stated he had not been a retreat. The object of the bill related not only to the constables' vote, but to two other classes of persons as well. It embraced in its purview persons from whom polling booths were rented, those who furnished printed ballots and other election necessities and those who might be hired by the deputy returning officer as well.

The Attorney-General declared that the bill was not a retreat, but a declaration of the rights of the elector, and that the bill was not a retreat, but a declaration of the rights of the elector, and that the bill was not a retreat, but a declaration of the rights of the elector.

"We on this side think it an injustice," he said, "that when an Act has been passed by the House of Commons, and the principles have been recognized for half a century, and the House of Commons has been placed upon it after, and not before, an election contest."

The fact that both parties up to 1887 had for 40 years tacitly recognized the right of the elector to vote, should be a significant factor in the consideration of the question. He had never heard of the slightest doubt expressed on the subject.

Four years ago the Government had made the House with the slim majority of seven, or including the West Kist, of nine; there had been no effort then to apply a legal quibble of the kind to deprive the Government of the majority.

It was then that the Government had at one time commanded a majority of 87, but it should be remembered that "no chain is stronger than its weakest link."

There was no questioning the right of Opponents to assume that returning and deputy returning officers were friends of the Government in power, but the fact that a variety of reasons were often not so.

The Act of 1868 and 1869, was true, had returning officers, deputy returning officers and poll clerks to be disqualified, the Legislature thereby implying that they had not been so before.

Sir Oliver Mowat in 1874, in passing an Act enfranchising them, had made no mention of constables, thereby implying that they had not been so before.

Quoting from the Common Law of England, the Premier lectured with the students that the constables were involved in the question before the House. He admitted that there might be three or four of such constables in one place, but he said that the House was not South Perth and West Huron.

He could not say to Nipissing, or Muskoka, or any other place, that the House would not alter the position of affairs in East Landon, South Norfolk, Lennox or West York; in the matter of some constables were Conservatives.

There were ten reasons why constables should vote, and they should not be and he quoted from "Journal of the House of Commons."

support of his statement. He then dealt with the newspaper allegations that he had been a retreat. They had claimed that the Government, after meeting its friends, had been forced to change their minds and alter their course. There could be no one of truth in that. No Reformer, either in the House or in the country, had remonstrated with him or the Government against the original measure as founded on the principle of the bill of 1887. In fact, he believed Reformers would have been better pleased had the Government stuck to their original plan than drawn election officials hired in the public interest to perform public functions, and those employed by one of the candidates for his own benefit. These latter were not entitled to vote, but with the man who were paid public money the case was different. They performed a public duty, and were not called upon to work for either one or other of the candidates.

"We on this side think it an injustice," he said, "that when an Act has been passed by the House of Commons, and the principles have been recognized for half a century, and the House of Commons has been placed upon it after, and not before, an election contest."

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

From the evidence given in W. H. Panton's favor during the last two days, one is led to believe that there has been some change of opinion which are not exactly true.

If the vote of the election committee be decided by the Court to be illegal, why should not they be thrown out, as would those of any other persons who had voted without possessing the legal qualifications? Mr. Panton and his friends say that the committee have always voted without question, but what has that to do with the case? It is wrong prior to be right because its discovery comes late in the day.

AT TRENTON.

Further Particulars of the Musical Festival.

The afternoon trial of the 8-barit to Trenton was very largely patronized yesterday. Those who went up were somewhat disappointed to find that the programme was not what they had expected. The grounds. The athletic sports were in progress and resulted as follows: 220-yd. hurdle (professional)—Nolan 1, Ford 2, Coleman 3. 100-yd. dash—Coleman 1, Nolan 2, Ford 3.

Running long jump—Coleman 1, Nolan 2, Ford 3. Vaulting with pole—Nolan 1, Coleman 2. A well attended lacrosse match was played by Campbellford and Marmora, resulting in a victory for the latter by four to one.

In the evening the annual race of the Trenton Rowing Club took place in the harbor. The double scull race was won by William and Charles, while the single scull race was won by Joseph Bryant. At 8 o'clock there was a grand illuminated league parade, headed by a job contractor, which elicited much applause. The prize for the best marching band was won by the "Princess of Wales" band of Kingston.

A successful balloon ascension was the last of the series of the morning's programme. The strata of the town were lavishly decorated and ample provision had been made for the comfort and pleasure of the visitors. It is estimated that over 10,000 visitors were on the grounds.

A Fire.

About five o'clock in the afternoon fire broke out in a building owned by Hill as a carriage shop. It burned with great ferocity, and threatened a large frame house. The engine, however, threw two very good streams and the firemen knew their business. The flames were extinguished after a great deal of damage had been done to the shop. One young man, desirous of saving valuable property, plunged into the building, narrowly escaped suffocation, and re-appeared with a 25 cent thermometer.

Don't Miss this Pleasant Trip.

Why should anyone go far from home for a summer's outing when a most pleasant holiday can be taken for a small amount of money by taking the American Line to Montreal through the 1000 Islands down the St. Lawrence and shooting the numerous rapids? The boat leaves Kingston daily, either for the 1000 Islands or the combined trip. The new river boat, the "New York," is without doubt the finest ever put on this route, everything being up-to-date, and the accommodations are of the highest class. There is no smoke, no freight, dining rooms on main deck, and the boats are modern light draught day line steamers. For full particulars write or call on J. A. BAVARIA'S MAD KING.

Indications are that His End is not Far Distant.

The latest news of the condition of King Otto of Bavaria seems to indicate that the end is not far distant.

He has been "King" since 1886, when his brother Ludwig III. came to an untimely end. He lives in what seems a horrible mockery of royal state. His suite of rooms on the ground floor is sumptuously furnished and adorned with fine pictures. The park and gardens are kept in costly style. Until lately the King has eaten and drunk and smoked some forty cigarettes a day, using as many boxes of matches as he does of cigars. But since Christmas he has quit his bedroom, and in all probability will never do so again.—London Echo.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

—The Toronto Globe has committed the Liberal party to prohibition. In an editorial last week it advised everyone who had the interests of Canada at heart to vote for prohibition, and said that the Liberal party could be relied upon to carry out its promise. The Globe evidently believes that prohibition is going to be carried, and that the Liberal party is a good one to stand with.—Events.

—The prohibitionists put their foot in it when they went out of their way to insult the press, by charging it with lack of principle, and insinuating that it could be bought up by the party in power. The party has repudiated most of the things the Globe committed it to in the old days before they knew that prohibition was going to be carried, and that the prohibition party is a good one to stand with.—Events.

THE DRINK BILL OF THE DOMINION.

Royal Commission Estimated it at Forty Millions Annually—Valuable Information.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Mail and Empire gives the following facts:

The Royal Commission on Prohibition calculated the drink bill of Canada, on the average, at $40,000,000 annually.

This however, does not allow for the weakening of spirits by water, which, the commission says, is a well known fact.

It is largely done, it is reported, therefore, that the actual drink bill would be undoubtedly in excess of the sum stated, or to put it in other words, something beyond forty million dollars a year.

The calculation was made on the basis of the consumption of 1893. The first cost of the alcohol of excise and desolation is placed at $15,000,000, including the duty, leaving $25,000,000 for its distribution and sale.

It is not likely to have an elevating effect on the country, and the commission requires that the veil of charity should be drawn aside, and that little becomes the prohibitionists to spread their broadcast.

"BY A LARGE MAJORITY."

The election of Belleville has decided, by five to one of those who polled their votes, to abolish the Ward system and reduce the number of Aldermen from twenty-one to ten.

Had a full vote been recorded the majority would have been much larger.

The reasons for this sweeping majority in favor of a change are too well known to require further reference, and the people are to be congratulated on the result.

Had Read About It.

"I had the pleasure of reading on my side and was also troubled with severe headaches. My blood was out of order and my constitution was generally run down. Reading what Hood's Sarsaparilla had done I began taking it and after using two bottles I was cured. My blood is now in perfect order, and I feel like a new man."

A MIGHTY ARMAMENT.

Importance of the Increase of the U. S. Navy's Armament.

London, Aug. 20.—The morning papers comment upon the proposed immense increase in the American navy.

The Standard says: "Such a fleet operating from Manila as a base would be able to exercise considerable influence upon the progress of events in the Philippines, and added to the English-Chinese squadrons and the Japanese navy would make a mighty armament indeed."

The Standard suggests that this consideration may give Russia a pause.

The Daily Mail says: "The new programme is startling in its immensity. The American navy jumps to fourth place among the world's fleets. It will not long remain fourth, nor will it be long before the United States will have a policy in China."

Of Far-reaching Importance.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Hamburgische Correspondent reports the appointment of Col. Hay to the post of Secretary of the United States as of far-reaching importance, indicating the solidarity of the Anglo-American understanding and co-operation in far Eastern affairs.

UNABLE TO WALK.

A Dismalizing Malady Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

(From the Montreal, N. B., Advertiser.)

Right in our own village is reported another of the remarkable cures that make Dr. Williams' Pink Pills so popular throughout the land.

Mr. W. Miller, the advertiser interviewed his husband, who was glad to relate the circumstances for publication, that others might read and have a remedy put into their hands as it were.

"For five years," said Mr. Miller, my wife was unable to walk without aid.

She was a fine, healthy woman, and was as well as my own. We were her recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I recommend them for any case of nervous weakness or general debility.

Mr. Miller is part owner and manager of one of our lumber mills and is well known throughout the county.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease, and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Synod of Canada.

The eighteenth meeting of the Synod of the Anglican Church in Canada will convene in Montreal on the 4th of September.

Mr. Canon Burke is the only delegate from the diocese of Montreal. Mr. J. H. Halliwell, B.A., of Stirling, is the only lay delegate from this County.

FRUD UNMASKED AND EXPOSED.

For some years the ladies of Canada have suffered much and inconvenience from use of deceptive home dyes put up to look like the popular Diamond Dyes.

These imitation package dyes are sold at very low prices to retail merchants, who in turn made immense profits on them when sold to women who were unfortunately influenced by them.

These imitations of Diamond Dyes were never sold more than once to any woman. They possessed no foundation qualities or good points to make them valuable or popular. They were made of the cheapest ingredients, the colors were dead, muddy and ugly, and they ruined all materials they came in contact with. These cheap dyes are now so dispensed and shunned that storekeepers are glad to sell them at half price.

The Diamond Dyes are still marching on to new victories, and have always retained their position by true merit alone. Beware of the imitation and cheap dyes that are still pushed on the unsuspecting by some dealers. If a storekeeper values your trade he will recommend you to use the Diamond Dyes.

MILLIONS SHOT AWAY

TWO BATTERIES FIRE $6,000,000 AT EACH OTHER IN AN HOUR.

One Broadside Cost $16,000—Money Is No Object in this Modern Experiment. A Couple of Gatling Guns Would Fire Off $6,000,000 in Fifteen Minutes.

Some idea of the enormous cost of war at the present day may be had by figuring out a fictitious regular engagement between two big battleships like the Oregon and the Pelago. Of valuable property, the cost of ammunition used runs up amazingly fast. It is almost like the firing money. Fusing paying $1,000 over time a shot is fired from a rapid-firing gun. There are a good number of warships in the United States navy that have nearly half a dozen guns that swallow $1,000 worth of ammunition at a single shot. Not to speak of the numberless little flotilla that eat up from $200 to $700 worth every shot.

One broadside from the battleship Oregon, with every gun discharging five shells, would cost at least $10,000 simply for the ammunition and for the moment figure on the destruction of property made by such a broadside, and the total runs up more rapidly.

A little more than three tons of the sea would quickly destroy at least $3,000,000 worth of property in one hour. Each ship cost the same. The loss of either would mean a loss of $1,670,000. It is probable that the other would be almost half its value before it was sunk. These two incidents of a naval battle would mean a total destruction of $5,340,000.

In one hour each of the big guns would be discharged about 30 times. That is the average number each time in the battle of the Oregon were discharged it would cost the government $18,000. In just one of 60 minutes it would cost $1,800,000. Each gun would cost $24,000 worth of shot and shell. Four of her guns cost $96,000 each time they are discharged. Four of them $1,000 each, and eight of them $700 each.

Battleships that carry two Gatling guns. Their capacity is 1,300 shots a minute. To operate each gun $300 worth of cartridges must be expended every minute. It is not probable that they would be fired for more than fifteen minutes, but even that brief time would mean an expense of $1,500 for each gun, or $9,000 for both.

That is the cost of the engagement to $240,000, or $4,180 a minute, or a little more than $68 a second.

To quote the Pelago would cost a trifle of $30,000 less than this total. She carries seventeen guns. A single discharge of all of them would cost $10,000. One of her guns costs $850 a shot, twelve of them $500 each, two of them $300 each, and the rest $100 each. With twelve of these she carries four Gatling guns. To fire them fifteen minutes would cost $18,000.

The total cost of the engagement to the Pelago would be $219,000, an average of $3,650 a minute, or $60 a second, with a few pennies to spare.

Therefore, supposing that one ship would be wholly wrecked and the other ship disabled, the total cost of this one battle between the United States Government and that of Spain, counting $108,000 worth of ammunition, would be dangerously near $4,000,000.

If the Oregon were destroyed the fight would cost $4,019,000. If she were disabled she would expend with a loss of $2,400,000. The destruction of the Pelago would mean a loss to Spain of $1,600,000. If she were disabled the expense to the Spaniards would be $3,034,000.

Dr. H. B. G. T. Wines.

Many are the stories told by speakers at public dinners at the expense of each other, after the fashion of Judge Howland's story of how R. H. Nicholson's wife thought he was opening it with prayer. A similar interesting story is told of John Wammanaker. He is reported to have observed, as he entered his store one morning, three boys admiring a window in the window. With native goodness of heart he turned to them and asked them if they would like a wheel. On their answering "yes," he turned and gave a wheel to the boy who will give the best answer to this question: "Whom do you love best?" Instantly one of the boys cried out, "John Wammanaker." "Oh, no!" he replied, "you never saw me before. You don't know me best." He then turned to the second, "Whom do you love best?" The instant answer came, "My father and mother." "Excellent!" said Mr. Wammanaker. "It is an admirable answer. I think you will get the wheel." Then to the third: "Whom do you love best?" "Jesus Christ," said the boy. "Ah! that is the best answer of all; the best is yours. I am glad to see you reciting the Christian life so young. What is your name and where do you live?" "Moses Isaac, Chatham street," replied the boy, but he lost the wheel—the Independent.

CONCERNING CLOCKS.

Repeating clocks were invented by Barlow about 1676.

There was a striking clock in Westminster abbey in 1688.

The invention of the arrangement is ascribed to Gresham in 1609 A. D.

The magnetic clock was invented by Dr. Locke of Cincinnati in 1847-8.

Toothed wheels were first applied to clocks by Ctesibius about 140 B. C.

It is said that Richard Raker and the young Gallet constructed the first pen dulum.

—A New Liberal change against Sir Charles Tupper is that he is old. He will be much older than he is, however, before he reaches the stage of senility that characterizes the originator of the idea that capital is a political power to be exercised at any point's gray hairs. But Tupper has very few gray hairs.

Stopped, Has It?

It was such a good watch. I never had it cleaned in five years. That is the remark we hear every day. Is it any wonder watches go to pieces? A watch is a very delicate piece of mechanism, and to give satisfaction and wear a lifetime should be cleaned every eight months. Has yours been attended to? If not, bring it in. Our price for cleaning is as consistent with good work.

CIRCUS DAY.

Threatening Appearance of the Weather Spoiled Masanaga's Day.

The early morning rain and the threatening appearance of the weather all day, prevented a large attendance at Masanaga's celebration. The Merritt and Annie Lake each made several trips, but were not crowded as any of them.

The leading attraction was the balloon ascension by Prof. Cayley, which took place at four o'clock. He went up a considerable distance and the spectacle delighted the branches of a tree when descending. From there he reached the ground in safety. The balloon dropped into the bay and was picked up by the Annie Lake. W. Hensley gave an exhibition of light rifle work.

The yacht Skyler and a large number of smaller craft visited the dock during the afternoon. The majority of the pleasure-seekers returned to the city early in the evening well pleased with their outing and regretting that circumstances prevented a better attendance.

Hunting and Fishing Coats.

The Oak Hall has all the outcrop things in men's short coats for hunting and fishing. We have just received our new coats, leather with corduroy lining, English whip cord, kersey lined, and waterproof duck lined. They cost run in price $5 to $8. We will be pleased to introduce them to you.

WEDDING IN THURLOW.

Miss Edna Sils becomes Mrs. Walter Barrager.

Yesterday evening at eight o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Phillips, in Thurlow, Mr. Walter Barrager, of North Yarmouth, was married to Miss Edna Sils, daughter of Mr. W. H. Sils. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Plainfield in the presence of about 30 guests. The young couple are next week for Washington State, where they will reside. The best wishes of many friends go with them.

Schuster will sell you a smart looking tie for 30c.

ONLY THREE MORE.

Anti-Bonus Scrutineers Appointed for Ketcheson, Baldwin and Coleman Wards.

Only three more scrutineers, all on behalf of the anti-bonus party, were appointed for the coming election. Mr. J. H. Leavens for Samuel Ward was sworn in on Wednesday. The Mayor will receive nominations for scrutineers in the remaining wards at the close of Friday evening public meeting.

Among the ratepayers present last evening were John G. Frost, President of the Board of Trade, ex-Mayor Wallbridge, ex-Mayor Diamond, ex-Alt. Pettigrew, Alt. Grille, Alt. Pantar, Alt. Finnegun, City Solicitor Masson, F. Day Diamond, S. Symons and Chas. J. New.

Snow Storms

Will soon be here again. Before they come enjoy a trip to Montreal via the American Line through the 1000 Islands down the St. Lawrence and shooting the numerous rapids? The boats leave Kingston daily, either for the islands or the combined trip. The new river boat, "New York," is without doubt the finest ever put on this route, everything being up-to-date, and the cuisine excellent. The "American Line" steamer leaves Kingston daily at 4.30 a.m., and passengers are entitled to berth free the night before departure of steamer. There is no smoke, no freight, dining rooms on main deck and the boats are modern light draught day line steamers. For full particulars call on J. J. Goode, city solicitor, or songer agent, Kingston, Ont. d25w

Boys' School Clothing.

Somewhat or other that boy of yours creeps into our minds often that we think of. Possibly the investigation of future business. Anyway, the gatherings for his wearing are the brightest thoughts in our store. Small wonder we turn to them so often. In he for school? Three cases of stylish Fall Suits just opened.—QUICK & ROBERTSON.

Hogs Dropped.

This week live hogs have taken a slump never known before. The price dropped $1 per hundred. The present price for select is 44c, for light 42c and 40c, and $2.75, with a declining tendency. A cable from the English market states that English bacon is $1.75 for this week.

Josh Billings Said

Next to a clear conscience for solid comfort give me an old shoe. Putnam's Pain-Ex-Cor Extensor removes the worst pains in twenty-four hours. Putnam's is the only sure, safe and painless corn extractor.

Lost Boy.

Chief Newton received notice this morning from the Chief of Police at St. Catharines to be on the lookout for Fred Wilson, a 12 year old boy who left his home at Merriton, on Wednesday, August 17th.

The Market.

Despite the dark aspect of the weather there was a large attendance at the market this morning. There was fruit in abundance, especially eggs which sold for 25c a lb., eggs 10c a dozen.

Earlier Than Usual.

Our New Fall Book is arriving earlier than usual. We shall have by far the most complete stock in the history of Belleville. It contains all the new books for Men and Boys, King's, McPherson's and a few styles in American Books for Ladies, handsome endnote varieties for Boys and Girls.—HARRIS & LOCKYER.

License Commissioners.

The Board of License Commissioners for West Hastings met yesterday afternoon. The request of Mrs. Reynolds to have the license of W. J. Stump transferred to her self was again considered, but the Commission was declined to comply therewith.

Schuster is sole agent for G. & B. neck wear.

was too strong to be resisted. He complained of "British ignorance of Russia's line of action," and said:

"Why does not England approach Russia directly with a declaration that Russia's interference in China will be regarded as a casus belli? It is useless to punish helpless China and to participate in the degradation of the empire. The United States, therefore, the British Empire should be paramount; but it is unable to do anything unless England helps, with sword in hand."

A New Combination. London, Aug. 31.—The Pekin correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "Negotiations are being conducted by Wang Wing, an American citizen, to whom the United States has granted a concession for the construction of a railway from the mouth of the Yellow River to the interior of the province of Shantung, with the object of establishing an Anglo-American German combination for the construction of the railway. The estimated cost of the railway is $5,000,000, and it is expected that the American and German interests will be joined in a commercial company."

ANARCHY AT MANILA. The insurgents said to be hunting and pillaging the Spaniards while the natives are in a state of complete anarchy. London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Manila, dated Aug. 30, says: "The anarchy at Manila is in a state of complete anarchy. The insurgents are hunting and pillaging the Spaniards while the natives are in a state of complete anarchy. The estimated cost of the railway is $5,000,000, and it is expected that the American and German interests will be joined in a commercial company."

THE TSUNG LI YAMEN. Feels that Britain Must Be Fiercer With Russia if China is to be Disembarrassed. London, Aug. 31.—A high member of the Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office), who is a British sympathizer, complained, in the course of a recent interview, that the British Government was not doing enough to support against Russian aggression. He said: "I feel that Britain must be fiercer with Russia if China is to be disembarrassed."
